

STARFALL MEADOW TALES · BOOK TWO

Genesis

and the Forgotten Garden

Julia Nicole Ashe

Grow Your Own Garden

Lyra planted this garden with love.
Now it's your turn — what would YOU grow?

- ✦ Draw your flowers, plants, or trees in the garden below.
- ✦ Who would you plant your garden for?

My garden is for: _____

My favourite flower colour is: _____

I would name my garden: _____

"I saved these seeds for whoever comes next."

— Lyra

Cobble's Questions

Cobble is very old and very wise.
He has been watching this garden for thirty years.
What would you like to ask him?

*"I have been sitting in this garden for thirty years. I have seen many things.
What would you like to know?"*

— Cobble

1

My question for Cobble:

*What would you ask someone who has watched a garden
for 30 years?*

2

Something old I love:

*A place, object, or person that feels special to you —
write or draw it here.*

3

A memory to keep:

*Draw or write a happy memory
you want to remember
for a long, long time.*

Your Spiral Magic

Everyone's magic is different. What does yours look like?

Fill in the boxes below to discover your magic!

"spiral magic goes where it's needed"

My magic colour is:

What colour would your spirals glow?

draw it here

My magic is good at:

*What could your spiral
magic find or fix?*

My magic goes to:

Who would you use your magic to help?

"Spiral magic goes where it's needed."

— Elder Wren